European Cargo Security Essentials for Executives and Managers: Level 3 (part 1) – 2 Days

INTRODUCTION

JP International Aviation Security Ltd is a security aviation training company based in the United Kingdom. JP-IAS was established in 2001 and since has become one of the leading aviation training and management consultancy companies. Since forming we have gained a large client base throughout the UK, Europe and other continents. Many of these clients return for repeat business and we have built special relationships with many of them.

The course will focus on the regulations as laid down by ICAO, UK and EU. The course gives the delegate regulatory knowledge to allow them to carry out their duties efficiently and with confidence whilst allowing the day to day operations to run with minimal disruption.

Worldwide airlines deliver over 52 million tonnes of cargo every year. The security of Air Cargo is a high priority globally. The course is designed to aid staff in dealing with the acceptance, screening, storage and transportation to ensure no prohibited articles are contained are introduced in air cargo.

The training will provide delegates an understanding of their roles and responsibilities, allowing them to develop their skills for future higher security management positions.
