

General Introduction to Aviation Train the Trainer – 3 Days

Introduction

Within the Aviation Environment we have a regulatory and organizational obligation to share processes and procedures in the most effective way.

To do this the organization benefits immensely from having its own internal capacity to deliver regulatory and organisational procedures training including for example Human Factors, Company Procedures, Safety and Quality Procedures and Processes.

This course aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of the requirement for effective training in your local environment and provides a range of learning techniques to enable your nominated trainer to deliver appropriate training within your organization. The course is extremely intensive highly practical and promotes best training practices.

The course focuses both on the implementation and management processes involved in Training as well as the need to develop personal training skills.

It is an industry specific three day program specifically designed for those who need to manage or deliver specific training in their organizations.

The course is a highly participative and stimulates involvement and provides for powerful motivation. To introduce the delegate to training skills and to provide the confidence which can be developed to deliver an effective Training within your organizations.

Extensive use is made of group exercises, case studies and feedback.

The delegate will receive pre course work in support of this training to add value to the practical elements of this training. In addition the delegate will make several short presentations throughout the training and will develop a typical training program for a number of related subjects.

Who is the course for?

The course is primarily focused on the needs of the Aviation Instructor to be compliant with the obligation to complete Instructional Techniques Training.

The course will also be of interest to persons who are interested in becoming Aviation Instructors or wishing to hone existing skills.
