How can you offer such a low price and surely this will Impact Quality?

So, to answer the first part – it is a function of economies of scale (how can Ryanair offer a flight for 45 Euro?) In fact, we are pleased to share that we have had over 17,000 enrollments in our online platform during the last 12 months. To answer the second part, we have a team of 25 Instructors, some also employed by regulatory authorities and with up to 50 years commercial aviation experience!

This is what one of our clients posted on LinkedIn (unsolicited).
