

Competence Assessment Document for EASA Part 147 Practical Assessors

Required Attribute or Competence	Assessment Observations	Additional Activity or action Required-Describe
Personal Attributes – - The ability to remain objective and independent -Being able to fully engage with the need to listen -Able to Actively influence events -Effective Communicator -Able to Evaluate information and to make appropriate determinations -Able to Prioritise and Make valued Judgements
Basic Background Experience and Technical Knowledge Fully Meets the Requirements of the EASA 147 Organisation
Full Knowledge and Awareness of Associated Regulations
Full Knowledge and Awareness of Associated Documentation and Standards
Fully Knowledgeable in the Tasks Associated with the Area of the Practical Assessment
Knowledgeable Regarding the Application of Human Factors Principles within the Maintenance Environment
Able to interpret exposures driven by Commercial Pressure and other Time Constraints
Knowledgeable Regarding MTOE & Organisational Procedures
Trained in Techniques and Knowledgeable regarding the need to assess true abilities of the Candidate Aware of and Trained on the Procedures related to the Performance of Assessments compliant with EASA Part 147 familiar with any Specific the tools or the techniques used by MTO to make assessments Able to make determination regarding the effective accomplishment of the tasks by the "Trainee"		