

Logistics & Stores Inspection Procedures FAA Essentials – 1 Day

Introduction

Having robust, compliant Aviation Stores managed by trained competent personnel is essential to help prevent the introduction of unairworthy parts into inventories with the Receiving Inspection process being the first line of defense.

This training is designed to cover all elements which are essential to the effective management and operation of a fully compliant store from an FAA perspective.

This comprehensive 1-day training will provide attendees with:

- A detailed practical understanding of the requirements to manage and enhance Aviation Store processes and procedures compliant with FAA regulations;
- The ability to demonstrate an Acceptable Means of Compliance based on gaining knowledge of relevant FAA Advisory Circulars;
- Guidance for establishing adequate traceability of manufactured and repaired Aeronautical Parts to help prevent unairworthy parts from being accepted into Stores.

Who is the course for?

The course is designed for individuals who work in the aviation industry and are responsible for managing logistics and stores operations, including personnel who are responsible for inspecting and maintaining equipment and supplies. This course is specifically targeted towards individuals who work for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), but it may also be beneficial for individuals who work in similar roles in other aviation organizations.
