

Airport Accountable Executive EASA Regulatory Obligation & SMS Overview and Best Practice Workshop - 1 Day

Introduction

The new European Commission Regulation EASA Commission Regulation (EU) No 139/2014, applicable to aerodromes was published and adopted on 12/02/2014. The regulation has a direct impact on Aerodrome Operators and Operations as well as Regulatory Authorities.

EASA is creating a performance-based regulatory environment with common standards across all regulations which are enabled by EASA Basic Regulation 216/2008. A specific Focus on Management and Safety Systems is evident. The Aerodrome managers deliver specific oversight. EASA on behalf of all member states is obligated to show compliance with ICAO Standards, Recommendations, and Guidance.

Requirements are introduced which have a direct bearing on Management Systems including Quality and Safety and Compliance elements.

Intensive 1-day training for busy Industry leaders; the focus of the training is a comprehensive understanding of the Roles and Responsibilities of Accountable Executives and Senior Nominated Persons.
