

Developing a 147 Maintenance Training Organisation Exposition – 1 Day

Introduction

An EASA-approved 147 Maintenance Training Organisation is required for a Maintenance Training Organisation Exposition MTOE.

This 1-day training presented by Sofema Aviation Services provides a comprehensive understanding of the requirement to develop, create and manage a document that not only demonstrates regulatory compliance but which serves to manage an efficient and effective organisational process.

As well as a word MTOE template delegates will receive more than 20 generic forms which you can use to build your organisational system.

This 1-day training will serve as a fast-track process to speed up the development of your MTOE whilst at the same time ensuring compliance is achieved.

If possible delegates are encouraged to bring along a soft copy of their current or in-development MTOE.

Who is the course for?

The course is made for individuals and organizations involved in the aviation industry, particularly those interested in establishing or improving a Maintenance Training Organization (MTO) in accordance with regulatory requirements. This course caters to managers, trainers, and professionals responsible for developing, implementing, and maintaining training programs within an MTO.

What is the Benefit of this Training – What will I learn?

The participants will gain comprehensive knowledge of the regulatory framework and requirements for establishing and maintaining a Maintenance Training Organization (MTO) under the 147 certification. The course will cover topics such as developing training programs, creating training manuals, ensuring compliance with industry standards, and effectively managing an MTO to meet regulatory expectations.
